Note from my cluttered desk.....Here are the most dreaded words that teenagers hate to hear.....summer is almost over!!! Hard to believe it is coming to an end so soon. While Summer does not "officially" end until September 23rd, summer as many of you know it ends the week of August 15th. Just as seasons on the calendar change so does seasons of our life change. While it has really been an amazing summer, God has moved in the lives of students in so many different ways through camps, Wired, Block Parties and a mission trip. It is now a time for change.... What will the next season in your life look like? Ecclesiastes 3 tells us there is a time for everything, a time to be born, a time to die. A time to weep, a time to laugh, time love, a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. Vs 11 says "God makes all things beautiful in His time". I hope this next "season" in your life is a "beautiful" time with God. Commit to make this school year a time where you seek God daily and impact your school, friends and community for Him. I look forward to a great new season..... I know God is going to do something BIG, I pray you are a part of it! I look forward to hearing about what God is doing at your school and hanging out with you on your school campus. It is a joy to be your Student Pastor and I love serving you guys!
