A note from my cluttered desk..... Here we go again, the start of another year. 2011 will soon be a distant memory and 2012 will bring its fair share of fun, memories, challenges and experiences. With a new year brings numerous commitments and resolutions, most of which will already be broken by February. What will you commit to this year? What will be the one thing you will try to do different this year? While we cannot change the past we certainly can impact the future. The Apostle Paul gave us great words to live by in the book of Philippians 3:13-14 "....forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on...." You can't change anything about 2011 but we can certainly learn from every experience, good and bad. I pray that 2012 will be a great year for you and your family, that you will experience the presence of the Lord in your life like never before. I want to challenge you this year to do a few things: love more, forgive more, laugh more, serve more, dream more, work more and continually press on each day towards the goal that God has called you to. It is going to be an awesome year and I hope you will be a huge part of what God is going to do in the 516 Nation this year! I love you guys and wish you the very best for 2012!
